Death of Mrs. E. A. Branen.

Mrs. E. A. Branen, wife of Joseph Branen, died at the Pacific hospital, Los Angeles, last Friday morning. Death was the result of an operation for appendicitis. Nothing is known here of the funeral arrangements but burial will probably take place in Los Angeles, as her only daughter, Mrs. Frank Peck, resides there. Mrs. Branen was a member of the lodge of United Moderns of this city. This is the first death that has occurred in the lodge.—Phoenix Republican.

Mrs. Branen was quite well known here, having conducted a millinery establishment in this city for some time, and later assisting Mrs. Geo. Mathews. Previous to the time of her death Mrs. Mathews had written her about returning here but received an answer stating that the condition of Mrs. Branen's health made it impossible for her to come. The news of her death was quite a surprise to her many friends here and is greatly regretted.
